Graduated Catechism Memory Program for All Ages

For centuries the Heidelberg Catechism has been used for the instruction of the church, including her youth and her converts. Recognized the world over as one of the most beautiful of all of the catechisms of the Reformation, it is known for its personal warmth and practicality. It was written to be committed to memory.

The following material has been compiled to assist and encourage memorization of the Heidelberg Catechism in the homes of the church. Those who've never learned the Catechism, or whose memories are rusty and want a refresher, can take part in such a program too. Everyone, of every age, will have opportunity to begin where they need to as well as the challenge to go as far as they can for the glory of God (Colossians 3:17). Coordination by the church will mean that the whole congregation will be encouraged to be "on the same page" from week to week. In this way friendly competitions in the family and even between generations can be used to encourage one another in the fun and excitement of memorization.

The material has been arranged in four columns per Lord's Day, progressing from a "Beginner's Version" at the first level to the "Complete Version" at the final level, complete with Biblical proof texts. An attempt has been made to capture the heart of each question and answer at the beginner's level without affecting the logic and flow of the Catechism. Each progressive level includes increasingly more detail. An outline of the entire Catechism has also been included to provide an overview of its contents and to show how it is principally made up of a discussion of the Apostles' Creed, the Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer.

In terms of strategy, the most effective use of a catechism is by way of continued repetition. Families might want to get in the habit of taking a little time during family devotions each day for memorization. Each week the next Lord's day will be the focus, but continuing to go over the answers already learned, in order, is also important for long term memory. In particular, over time, you will want to return to Lord's Days like 1, 7, 10, 23, 32 and 33, 44 and 45 again and again. This practice can be expected to bear the most fruit if it would also include some meditation and discussion of the teachings being memorized. At times, difficult words and concepts may need to be explained. The summer months can be used for review and repetition. Little by little, over the years, by God's grace, patient persistence will reap rewards.

Some additional benefits of this program would include the blessing of gradually being better and better equipped with a systematic understanding of the doctrines of the Bible. Even at the beginner's level one has a handy summary of the things we need to know, and digging deeper into a subject is as simple as working one's way across the page to the right, in order to find Biblical answers. It also makes the point that even as we strive for a fuller and fuller knowledge of these truths - even considering the proof texts - there is always more, the riches are never exhausted. Also, this program ought to serve the cause of evangelism. The Catechism equips us with central truths for a gospel presentation. It should even prove helpful for those being evangelized. We can begin with them at a very basic level (at the left of the page) and work (to the right) with them to seek to have them come to a deeper understanding.

May God bless the teachings of His Word to our hearts. May we live in the joy of knowing "our only comfort" in Christ, and may we always be "ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear." (1 Peter 3:15)

Lord's Day 7
Intermediate Version

Q&A 20 Are all people then saved through Christ just as they were lost through Adam?
No. Only those are saved who through true faith accept all his benefits.

Q&A 21 What is true faith?
True faith is not only a sure knowledge by which I hold as true

all that God has revealed to us in His Word;
it is also a whole-hearted trust,
which the Holy Spirit works in me by the gospel, that God has freely granted to me salvation.

Q&A 22 What then must a Christian believe?
All that is promised us in the gospel,
a summary is in the articles of our Christian faith.

Q&A 23 What are these articles?

I believe in God, the Father, Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary;
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended to heaven,
and sits at the right hand of God the Father, Almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen

Q&A 20 Are all people then saved through Christ just as they were lost through Adam?

No. Only those are saved who through true faith are grafted into Christ and accept all his benefits.

Q&A 21 What is true faith?

True faith is not only a sure knowledge by which I hold as true all that God has revealed to us in His Word; it is also a whole-hearted trust, which the Holy Spirit works in me by the gospel, that God has freely granted, not only to others, but to me also, forgiveness of sins, eternal righteousness, and salvation.

These gifts are purely of grace, only because of Christ's merit.

Q&A 22 What then must a Christian believe?

All that is promised us in the gospel, a summary is in the articles of our catholic and undoubted Christian faith.

Q&A 23 What are these articles?

Q&A 21 What is true faith?

True faith is not only a sure knowledge by which I hold as true all that God has revealed to us in His Word;¹ it is also a whole-hearted trust,² which the Holy Spirit works in me³ by the gospel,⁴ that God has freely granted, not only to others, but to me also,⁵ forgiveness of sins, eternal righteousness, and salvation.⁶

These gifts are purely of grace, only because of Christ's merit.⁷

Q&A 23 What are these articles?

I believe in God, the Father, Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended to heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father, Almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Q&A 69 How does holy baptism
remind and assure you

so certainly His blood and His Spirit wash away
all my sins.

Q&A 70 What does it mean to be washed with Christ's blood and Spirit?

because of Christ's blood

That the Holy Spirit has renewed

Q&A 69 How does holy baptism
remind and assure you
that Christ's one sacrifice on the cross benefits you personally?

In this way:

Christ instituted this outward washing¹
and with it promised that,

*as surely as water washes away the dirt from the body,
so certainly his blood and his Spirit
wash away my* soul's impurity, that is, *all my sins.*²

Q&A 70 What does it mean to be washed with Christ's blood and Spirit?

To be washed with Christ's blood means *that God, by grace, has forgiven our sins
because of Christ's blood* poured out for us in his sacrifice on the cross.¹

To be washed with Christ's Spirit means
*that the Holy Spirit has renewed and sanctified us to be members of Christ so that more and more
we die to sin
and live holy and blameless lives.*²

Q&A 71 Where does Christ promise that we are washed with his blood and Spirit as surely as we are washed with the water of baptism?

In the institution of baptism where he says:

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son
and of the Holy Spirit."¹

"Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved;
but whoever does not believe will be condemned."²

This promise is repeated when Scripture calls baptism
"the washing of regeneration"³ and the washing away of sins.⁴

² Mark 16:16

³ Tit. 3:5

⁴ Acts 22:16

Q&A 72 Does this outward washing with water itself wash away sins?

No.

Q&A 73 Why then does the Holy Spirit call baptism the the water of rebirth and the washing away of sins?

God

wants to assure us.

Q&A 74 Should infants also be baptized?

Yes.

Q&A 72 Does this outward washing with water itself wash away sins?

No, only Jesus Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit cleanse us from all sins.

Q&A 73 Why then does the Holy Spirit call baptism the the water of rebirth and the washing away of sins?

God

wants to assure us
that we are as truly washed of our sins spiritually as our bodies are washed with water physically.

Q&A 74 Should infants also be baptized?

Yes.

Infants as well as adults are included in God's covenant and people.

Q&A 72 Does this outward washing with water itself wash away sins?

No, only Jesus Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit cleanse us from all sins.

Q&A 73 Why then does the Holy Spirit call baptism the water of rebirth and the washing away of sins?

God

wants to assure us, by this divine pledge and sign, that we are as truly washed of our sins spiritually as our bodies are washed with water physically.

Q&A 74 Should infants also be baptized?

Yes.

Infants as well as adults are included in God's covenant and people, and they, no less than adults, are promised deliverance from sin.

Therefore, by baptism, the sign of the covenant, they too should be incorporated into the Christian church and distinguished from the children of unbelievers.

Q&A 72 Does this outward washing with water itself wash away sins?

No, only Jesus Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit cleanse us from all sins.¹

Q&A 73 Why then does the Holy Spirit call baptism the water of rebirth and the washing away of sins?

God has good reason for these words.

To begin with, he wants to teach us that the blood and Spirit of Christ wash away our sins just as water removes dirt from the body.¹

But more importantly, he wants to assure us, by this divine pledge and sign, that we are as truly washed of our sins spiritually as our bodies are washed with water physically.²

² Acts 2:38; Rom. 6:3-4; Gal. 3:27

Q&A 74 Should infants also be baptized?

Yes.

Infants as well as adults are included in God's covenant and people,¹ and they, no less than adults, are promised deliverance from sin through Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit who works faith.²

Therefore, by baptism, the sign of the covenant, they too should be incorporated into the Christian church and distinguished from the children of unbelievers.³

This was done in the Old Testament by circumcision,⁴ which was replaced in the New Testament by baptism.⁵

Q&A 77 Where does Christ promise to nourish and refresh believers with his body and blood as surely as they eat this broken bread and drink this cup?

In the institution of the Lord's Supper:

Q&A 75 How does the holy supper remind and assure you that you share in Christ's one sacrifice on the cross and in all his benefits?

In this way: Christ has commanded me and all believers to eat this broken bread and to drink this cup in remembrance of him.

With this command come these promises:¹

First, as surely as I see with my eyes

the bread of the Lord broken for me and the cup shared with me, so surely

his body was offered and broken for me and his blood poured out for me on the cross.

*Second, as surely as I receive from the hand of him who serves,
and taste with my mouth*

the bread and cup of the Lord, given me as sure signs of Christ's body and blood, so surely he nourishes and refreshes my soul for eternal life

with His crucified body and poured-out blood.

Q&A 76 What does it mean to eat the crucified body of Christ and to drink his poured-out blood?

It means to accept with a believing heart the entire suffering and death of Christ and in this way to receive forgiveness of sins and eternal life.¹

But it means more.

Through the Holy Spirit, who lives both in Christ and in us, we are united more and more to Christ's blessed body.²

And so, although he is in heaven³ and we are on earth, we are flesh of his flesh and bone of his bone.⁴

And we forever live on and are governed by one Spirit, as the members of our body are by one soul.⁵

Q&A 77 Where does Christ promise to nourish and refresh believers with his body and blood as surely as they eat this broken bread and drink this cup?

In the institution of the Lord's Supper:

"The Lord Jesus, on the night when he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said,

"Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.'

In the same way, also the cup, after supper, saying,

"This cup is the new covenant in my blood.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."¹

This promise is repeated by Paul in these words:

"The cup of blessing that we bless,

is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?

The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?

Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."²

² 1 Cor. 10:16-17

Q&A 78 Do the bread and wine become
the real body and blood of Christ?

No.

Q&A 79 Why then does Christ call
the bread his body
and the cup his blood,
or the new covenant in his blood,
and Paul use the words,
a participation in Christ's body and blood?

Christ

wants to assure us,

Q&A 78 Do the bread and wine become
the real body and blood of Christ?

No.

*it is called the body of Christ
in keeping with the nature and language of sacraments.*

Q&A 79 Why then does Christ call
the bread his body
and the cup his blood,
or the new covenant in his blood,

Christ

wants to assure us
*that we
share in his true body and blood*

No.

*it is called the body of Christ

Q&A 79 Why then does Christ call
the bread his body
and the cup his blood,
or the new covenant in his blood,
and Paul use the words,
a participation in Christ's body and blood?

Christ

wants to teach us that his crucified body and poured-out blood are the true food and drink of our souls for eternal life.

*He wants to assure us, by this visible sign and pledge,
that we
share in his true body and blood
as surely as our mouths
receive these holy signs in his remembrance,*

Q&A 78 Do the bread and wine become
the real body and blood of Christ?

No.

Just as the water of baptism is not changed into Christ's blood and does not itself wash away sins but is simply a divine sign and assurance¹ of these things, so too the holy bread of the Lord's Supper does not become the body of Christ itself² even though *it is called the body of Christ*³
*in keeping with the nature and language of sacraments.*⁴

Q&A 79 Why then does Christ call

and the cup his blood,
or the new covenant in his blood,
and Paul use the words,

Christ has good reason for these words.

He wants to teach us that

*just as bread and wine nourish the temporal life, so too his crucified body and poured-out blood are the true food and drink of our souls for eternal life.*¹

But more importantly,

*he wants to assure us, by this visible sign and pledge,
that we, through the Holy Spirit's work,
share in his true body and blood
as surely as our mouths
receive these holy signs in his remembrance,² and that all of his suffering and obedience are as definitely ours
as if we personally
had suffered and made satisfaction for our sins.*³

Q&A 80

Q&A 81 Who should come
to the Lord's table?

Those who are displeased with themselves

but who trust

and who also desire Christ, to lead a better life.

Q&A 82 Should those be admitted to the Lord's Supper
who show by what they profess and how they live that they are unbelieving and ungodly?

No.

Q&A 80

Q&A 81 Who should come
to the Lord's table?

Those who are displeased with themselves

because of their sins,
but who nevertheless trust
that their sins are pardoned

by the suffering and death of Christ,
and who also desire
to strengthen their faith
and to lead a better life.

Q&A 82 Should those be admitted to the Lord's Supper
who show by what they profess and how they live
that they are unbelieving and ungodly?

No.

Q&A 80 How does the Lord's Supper differ from the Roman Catholic Mass?

*The Mass teaches
that the living and the dead
do not have their sins forgiven
through the suffering of Christ
unless Christ is still offered for them daily by the priests.*

*It also teaches
that Christ is bodily present
under the form of bread and wine
where Christ is therefore to be worshipped.
Thus the Mass is basically a denial
of Jesus Christ
and a condemnable idolatry.*

Q&A 81 Who should come
to the Lord's table?

*Those who are displeased with themselves
because of their sins,
but who nevertheless trust
that their sins are pardoned*

*by the suffering and death of Christ,
and who also desire
to strengthen their faith
and to lead a better life.*

Q&A 82 Should those be admitted to the Lord's Supper
who show by what they profess and how they live
that they are unbelieving and ungodly?

No,

*the Christian church is duty-bound to exclude such people,
by the official use of the keys of the kingdom.*

Q&A 80 How does the Lord's Supper
differ from the Roman Catholic Mass?

The Lord's Supper declares to us that all our sins are completely forgiven through the one sacrifice of Jesus Christ, which he himself accomplished on the cross once for all.¹

It also declares to us that the Holy Spirit grafts us into Christ,² who with his true body is now in heaven at the right hand of the Father³ where he wants us to worship him.⁴

But *the Mass teaches
that the living and the dead
do not have their sins forgiven
through the suffering of Christ
unless Christ is still offered for them daily by the priests.*

*It also teaches
that Christ is bodily present
under the form of bread and wine
where Christ is therefore to be worshipped.*

*Thus the Mass is basically nothing but a denial of the one sacrifice and suffering of Jesus Christ
and a condemnable idolatry.*

⁴ Matt. 6:20-21; John 4:21-24; Phil. 3:20; Col. 3:1-3

Q&A 81 Who should come
to the Lord's table?

*Those who are displeased with themselves
because of their sins,
but who nevertheless trust
that their sins are pardoned*

*and that their remaining weakness is covered by the suffering and death of Christ,
and who also desire more and more
to strengthen their faith
and to lead a better life.*

Hypocrites and those who are unrepentant, however, eat and drink judgment on themselves.¹

¹ 1 Cor. 10:19-22; 11:26-32

Q&A 82 Should those be admitted to the Lord's Supper
who show by what they profess and how they live
that they are unbelieving and ungodly?

No, that would dishonor God's covenant and bring down God's wrath upon the entire congregation.¹ Therefore, according to the instruction of Christ and his apostles,
*the Christian church is duty-bound to exclude such people,
by the official use of the keys of the kingdom,
until they reform their lives.*

¹ 1 Cor. 11:17-32; Ps. 50:14-16; Isa. 1:11-17

Q&A 83 What are the keys of the kingdom?

The preaching of the holy gospel
and Christian discipline.

Q&A 84 How does preaching the holy gospel
open and close the kingdom of heaven?

The kingdom of heaven is opened

to all believers
as often as they accept the gospel promise in true faith,

Q&A 85 How is the kingdom of heaven
closed and opened by Christian discipline?

Those who, though called Christians,

refuse to abandon their errors and evil ways.

Such persons the church excludes
from the Christian community.

Q&A 83 What are the keys of the kingdom?

The preaching of the holy gospel
and Christian discipline toward repentance.

Q&A 84 How does preaching the holy gospel
open and close the kingdom of heaven?

The kingdom of heaven is opened

to all believers
as often as they accept the gospel promise in true faith,

The kingdom of heaven is closed, however,

*to unbelievers and hypocrites
as long as they do not repent,*

Q&A 85 How is the kingdom of heaven
closed and opened by Christian discipline?

Those who, though called Christians,

refuse to abandon their errors and evil ways.

Such persons the church excludes
from the Christian community.

*Such persons,
when promising and demonstrating genuine reform,
are received again
as members of Christ
and of his church.*

Q&A 83 What are the keys of the kingdom?

*The preaching of the holy gospel
and Christian discipline toward repentance.*

Q&A 84 How does preaching the holy gospel
open and close the kingdom of heaven?

The kingdom of heaven is opened
by proclaiming and publicly declaring
to all believers, each and every one, that,
as often as they accept the gospel promise in true faith,
God, because of Christ's merit,
truly forgives all their sins.
The kingdom of heaven is closed, however,
by proclaiming and publicly declaring
to unbelievers and hypocrites that,
as long as they do not repent,
the wrath of God and eternal condemnation
rest on them.

Q&A 85 How is the kingdom of heaven
closed and opened by Christian discipline?

Those who, though called Christians,

who after repeated personal and loving admonitions,
refuse to abandon their errors and evil ways,
and, who after being reported to the church, that is,
to those ordained by the church for that purpose,
fail to respond also to the church's admonitions –
such persons the church excludes
from the Christian community
by withholding the sacraments from them.

Such persons,
when promising and demonstrating genuine reform,
are received again
as members of Christ
and of his church.

Q&A 83 What are the keys of the kingdom?

*The preaching of the holy gospel
and Christian discipline toward repentance.*

Both of them
open the kingdom of heaven to believers and close it to unbelievers.¹

Q&A 84 How does preaching the holy gospel
open and close the kingdom of heaven?

According to the command of Christ:
The kingdom of heaven is opened
by proclaiming and publicly declaring
to all believers, each and every one, that,
as often as they accept the gospel promise in true faith,
God, because of Christ's merit,
truly forgives all their sins.
The kingdom of heaven is closed, however,
by proclaiming and publicly declaring
to unbelievers and hypocrites that,
as long as they do not repent,
the wrath of God and eternal condemnation
rest on them.

God's judgment, both in this life and in the life to come,
is based on this gospel testimony.¹

Q&A 85 How is the kingdom of heaven
closed and opened by Christian discipline?

According to the command of Christ:
Those who, though called Christians,

profess unchristian teachings or live unchristian lives,
and who after repeated personal and loving admonitions,
refuse to abandon their errors and evil ways,
and, who after being reported to the church, that is,
to those ordained by the church for that purpose,
fail to respond also to the church's admonitions –
such persons the church excludes
from the Christian community
by withholding the sacraments from them, and God also excludes them from the kingdom of Christ.¹
Such persons,
when promising and demonstrating genuine reform,
are received again
as members of Christ
and of his church.²
